

COURT OF APPEAL

Practice Direction (No. 1 of 2014)

Applications and Motions - Filing of Judges' Bundles

1. Introduction

- 1.1 This practice direction is made with the concurrence of the President and Judges of the Court of Appeal and takes effect from 1 June 2014.
- 1.2 Subject to specific directions given in any particular case, this practice direction applies to all applications or motions listed for hearing before the court or for hearing before a judge in chambers.

2. Preparation and filing of bundles

- 2.1 Unless the court directs otherwise, bundles are to be filed by the party whose application or motion is being heard.
- 2.2 Bundles must be indexed and paginated and must contain copies of all the documents relevant to the hearing of the application or motion, including any documents filed by the respondent in response to the application or motion.
- 2.3 For applications or motions scheduled for hearing by the court, four (4) bundles for the use of the court must be filed not less than four (4) working days before the date of the hearing.
- 2.4 For applications scheduled for hearing in chambers, one (1) bundle for the use of the court must be filed not less than two (2) working days before the date of the hearing.

3. Non-compliance with this practice direction

- 3.1 Failure to comply with any part of this practice direction, in the absence of good and sufficient reason, may result in the court or the single judge removing the matter from the hearing list and/or penalising the defaulting party in costs.
